

A printable (reconstructed) version of the astrological talisman

If you print this out and fold it so that both faces are back to back you can glue them together and keep it in your wallet or wherever you want

A suggestion for a consecration of this talisman:

FIRST decide when you are going to do the consecration and then look up a (birth)chart for that moment so that you know where the planets are during your ritual

It might be a good idea to place some tealights or the corresponding tarotcards on the floor so that you know where to face when you call the astrological powers

Then

Perform the LBRP:

relax
